My ideal holiday plan will be traveling around Barcelona, Spain. I've been to Barcelona once, but I couldn't stay there long enough to explore the city well. I'd love to go there again. Some people might say that they want a relaxing beach resort for their holiday, but I don't need to lie on the beach to relax. When I have a long holiday, I'd rather go explore the city, walking around, and experiencing new things, though. Though Barcelona does have beautiful beaches.

The main reason that I'd love to go to Barcelona for my holiday is the buildings therein Barcelona. I love all of Antoni Gaudi's magnificent works. There are lots of his works in Barcelona, such as, Sagrada Familia, Casa batlló, Batlló, and Casa Mila and others etc. One of my favorite buildings is Casa batlló. I'd like to visit it again and take a closer look at the building. All the curvy wooden doors and walls make me wonder how he managed to build such a wonderful building in old times. Looking at all the designs in the house will never make me bored, and I can sit there for hours. Visiting all the buildings which Gaudi designed, bar crawling, eating Spanish food and maybe I'll be lying on the beach are all things I'd like to do in Barcelona. I hope one day I can take a long holiday and visit this city again.

Teacher's Comments: Great essay! You did a very good job explaining your reasons for wanting to visit Barcelona again. Your essay made me interested in learning more about Gaudi's works. I can see why Casa Batlló is one of your favorites, what an interesting building. I too hope to visit Barcelona someday to see his works in person! If you would like to expand your essay, I encourage you to write more about the other reasons you listed at the end (bar crawling, eating Spanish food, and lying on the beach).
